1 Social Insurance: An Introduction

1. Martin Feldstein: Rethinking Social Insurance

2 Asymmetric Information: Theory and Tests

A. Theory

B. Empirical Tests of Asymmetric Information

C. Welfare Effects of Asymmetric Information

3 Issues with Health Care Systems: Theory and Evidence

A. Health as Human Capital and Its Measurement

B. Dynamic Inefficiency Due to Reclassification Risk: Theory and Evidence

C. Dynamic Inefficiency Due to Investment Externalities

D. Demand and Supply of Medical Care, Interacting with Health Insurance

4 Unemployment Insurance: Theory and Evidence

A. Institutional Background

B. Theory of Optimal Unemployment Insurance: Static Models

C. Theory of Optimal Unemployment Insurance: Dynamic Models

D. Empirical Evidence of Unemployment Insurance on Worker Behavior

E. Empirical Evidence of Unemployment Evidence on Firm Behavior

5 Disability Insurance

A. Survey

B. Theory of Optimal Disability Insurance

C. Empirical Evidence of the Effect of Disability Insurance

D. Workers’ Compensation

6 Social Security

A. Survey

B. Theory

C. Consumption and Saving Effects: Empirical Evidence

D. Labor Supply Effects: Empirical Evidence

